Blanc de Namur - Belgium

This wonderful wheat beer has fruity aromas with scents of coriander and orange. Cloudy in appearance, with light spice and citrus flavours it is a smooth thirst quenching beer with no bitterness. Alcohol Strength: 4.5% Style: Belgian White

Weltenburger Kloster Urtyp Hell - Germany

Pours a deep golden colour with a wispy white head, that quickly fades leaving good lacing. Aromas of sweet bread malts, caramel and a hint of mild fruity hops. Sweet flavour of bready malt up front, with notes of caramel and a hint of toffee. Some mild fruity hops come through towards the finish, leaving a bit of lingering bitterness. Clean and crisp beer and refreshing.

NEXT TAP COMING

Brussels Wit (aka Blanche de Bruxelles)

Witbier is a very old type of beer, a speciality of the farm-breweries of old Brabant. The master brewers used their very best crops to make this beer. Blanche de Bruxelles owes its natural cloudiness to the large percentage (40 %) of wheat that goes into its composition. The natural spice aromas of coriander and bitter orange peels are added during the brewing process. The brewing method, which includes infusion, is very slow. The beer, which is not filtered, is bottled and re-fermented with yeast and brewing sugar. You need only take a sip of this delicious drink to appreciate the fresh and mellow flavour with its hint of orange. It is really not like any other beer.

Gauloise Blonde - Belgian

Lovely golden appearance, bright and sparkling with a fine and creamy head. Enticing sweet honeydew and lemon aromas. Flavours of vanilla and pineapple hints of stone fruit finishing with a slight hint of fine hops. Alcohol Strength: 6.4% Style: Belgian Blonde

Sunner Kosh

Sunner is a "Kölsch" style beer which is unique to Koln (Cologne) Germany. Like Champagne (Appellation Controlee) it is protected by law, so that only beers brewed in that region can bear the name. It is an Ale with a stylish character derived from lagering. Pours a luminous gold colour with a thick, large, white head. Floral aromas hit the nose, with a slight hint of peppers and spices. Taste is light, delicate, and full of the same floral notes, while also malty, with a dry hoppy finish. Alcohol Strength 4.8%
